It is to be regretted that Judge Parker's letter of acceptance has not given general satisfaction. Roosevelt can't stand it and Uncle Joe Cannon doesn't like it a little bit.

Consideriug a whole lot of acts committed by the Republican officials and campaign managers, the Republican party should swap characteristic animals with the Democratic party.

A New York man gave $1,000,000 for a wife. A North Carolinian swapped another fellow out of his for two fish nets. The man who got the fish nets, we'll bet, is the happiest of the lot.

The Baltimore Sun, thoroughly independent, and one of the most influential newspapers in the United States, had a scathing editorial review of an erratic President and his policies, in its issue of last Thursday.

It is now announced that the price of nails has gone up because of a shortage in the supply. Shortage nothing! It is because of the increased demand brought about by the efforts of the Democrats to nail thousands of campaign lies.

A New York newspaper man is in jail for using a monkey-wrench to rob a millionaire. If he had used the plan of some millionaires for getting money the monkey-wrench thief would have been given a seat high up in the synagogue of the captains of finance. We thought newspaper men kept up with the times.

As beneficiaries of protective tariff taxes paid by the people of the United States, the manufacturers sell their products cheaper to foreign customers than they do to home cusumers. Looks like a man who would vote for a party that helps a class of men to do that is an easy mark for the fool-killer.

Says the Richmond Times: "The Japs went up against the American Tobacco Company also and the company has retreated from Japan—with a pocket full of money." The Jepanese government having mopolized the tobacco business in that country, will now be one of the big customers of the American Tobacco Company. The trust seems to get money going and coming.

Roosevelt ought to be able to realize that he had the sand cut from under him by Judge Parker's service pension proposition. The distinction is that Parker proposes to do the same thing by an act of Congress instead of by a surreptitious if not usurpatory executive order or dictatorial edict. The South is in favor of paying every deserved pension according to the Parker plan.

SENSATION IN COURT.

P. W. Young Attached for Contempt on Allegation of Tampering With Witness.

CHARGE DENIED IN TOTO.

Hearing Continued Under Same Bond Until the Next Term of Court Two Weeks Hence—Affidavits for the Prosecution—Notes.

Something in the nature of a sensation was sprung in the Superior Court yesterday afternoon when Hon. Jno. D. Bellamy, one of the counsel for the prosecution, asked and upon intimation of Judge Moore, was granted the service of a rule upon Paul W. Young, citing him to appear and show cause instanter why he should not be attached for contempt. The rule was upon an affidavit of Grace George, prosecuting witness against Young in a case of simple assault appealed from the Mayor's court upon a sentence of 30 days to the roads and growing out of an affray between the George woman and Kate Jenkins, both of questionable character, on the sidewalk near corner of Second and Princess streets late one night this Summer, particulars of which are well remembered by readers of the city papers. The George woman alleged that Young had used undue influence to have her leave town before the trial of the case could come up this week. The rule was immediately served upon the defendant who was seated in the court room. Later, additional affidavits from Gussie Grier, with whom the George woman boarded, and from Chief of Police Furlong, were filed in support of the original and the case coming on for a hearing was continued until the first day of the next term of court here two weeks hence. Young's cash bond of $350 was left with the clerk of the court as a guarantee for his appearance at that time.

The appeal of Young from the Mayor's court and the case of Grace George, herself charged with an assault with a beer glass upon Kate Jenkins in the same affray, had been pending in the Superior Court all the week and early yesterday afternoon it became evident that neither of the matters could be reached at this term. At an opportune time Mr. Bellamy, who appears with W. P. Gafford, Esq. for the city, addressed the court with reference to the case and told of a conversation he had just had with the George woman in the presence of her own counsel, Marsden Bellamy, Esq. The substance of this conversation was related and was to the effect that Young had made overtures to her to leave the city before the trial could come up. Judge Moore remarked that such conduct upon the part of a defendant was highly improper and should the facts as related by Mr. Bellamy be established in court he would not hesitate to impose a maximum penalty. Herbert McClammy, Esq., who with Col. A. M. Waddell, appears for Young was at once upon his feet expressing his disbelief of the charges made by the George woman and insinuating that counsel's speech was evidently to influence His Honor to increase his client's bond, which was already excessive, being $350 cash for a simple assault while that of the George woman was only $25 for the more serious charge of an assault with a deadly weapon. Judge Moore said he would await any further action counsel for prosecution desired to take.

The court proceeded with the trial of the case and Messrs. Bellamy and Gafford immediately obtained the following affidavit from the George woman who was in the witnesses' room in the building, the judge making the order thereon as annexed:

State of North Carolina,
New Hanover County.

State vs. Paul W. Young:

Grace George, being duly sworn, says she is a witness in this case against Paul W. Young, and is the person on whom the defendant Young is charged with making the assault and battery. That the defendant, Paul W. Young, came to affiant's home about the 21st day of this month, two or three days before the convening of court, and told affiant that he wanted her to help him out of his troubles; that he had the case in court and affiant had one, and the cases would go hard against each, if the affiant remained here and appeared in court; that he wanted affiant to leave this country on Sunday night before court and it would be better for him and it would be awful on affiant if she remains; that he would get a horse and buggy and carry affiant to Castle Haynes and affiant could take the train there and no one would ever see the affiant get off or know anything about it; that he would send affiant to Norfolk and give affiant $10, which would be all affiant would need on the way going. Affiant told said Young that she was under a $50 bond, and asked him if he thought that she was going to skip and forfeit that money. The said Young said he had a diamond ring, which he had on his finger, which was worth over $100, and he would put that up with Gussie Grier to keep her from losing her money. Affiant positively refused to leave the city until her case was settled, and so told the said Young, that affiant knows that some time after that and on the same night the said Young took Miss Grier in the dining room and had a conversation. A few minutes afterwards the said Miss Grier came out the room and said to affiant, "Grace, what do you think? Paul Young says he wants you to leave and that he will put up his ring to protect me. I know very well you are not going to leave." Affiant told her "No," she knew very well that affiant was not thinking of such a thing.

GRACE GEORGE.

Subscribed and sworn to before me the 1st day of Oct. 1904.

Jno. D. Taylor, C. S. C.

JUDGE'S ORDER THEREON:

Upon reading the foregoing affidavit, it is hereby ordered that defendant, Paul W. Young, show cause before Fred Moore, Judge of the Superior Court, at the Court House in Wilmington, instanter, why he should not be adjudged in contempt of this court and be dealt with according to law. FRED MOORE,

Oct. 1st, 1904. Judge Presiding.

An affidavit was also presented from Gussie Grier, who was served with an instanter surpoena to appear at the Court House and who made affidavit before N. J. Williams, J. P., that on or about Sept. 21st the defendant Young sent for affiant to come into her dining room; that she went and Young asked her if she didn't think it was best for all parties for Grace George to leave before court; that if she stayed here, it would go awful against her. The affiant told him she didn't think so; Grace George was assaulted on the streets. Affiant asked Young if he thought for one minute that she was going to lose her money. Young said "no," he would not think of such a thing; he was too much of a gentleman for that—that he he had a diamond ring on his finger which was worth $100, which he would not take anything in the world for, and that he would give affiant the ring to hold or would put it up for the money. Affiant told him "no," she was not going to let Grace go, if affiant could help it; that affiant has got Mr. Marsden Bellamy to plead Grace's case and he was as good as was in the town and affiant did not see any need of her running; that affiant would not run if she knew they would hang her in 20 minutes, and Grace should not run if affiant could help. In the course of the conversation affiant asked him how Grace would manage to get away even if she wanted to, and he replied that it was easy; that he would take a horse and buggy and take her to Castle Haynes and give her some money to pay her expenses and besides would send her money to Charleston if she would go there—and she could go with Maude Pinner to Charleston as Maude was going there, but affiant positively told him that Grace should not go if she could help it and affiant afterwards went to the chief of police and asked him to keep a lookout at the trains and see that she did not get off although affiant did not believe she was going to leave, but thought she might be overpersuaded and there was no danger in being safe. Affiant had deposited $50 cash bond for Grace George's appearance in court.

An affidavit was also presented from Chief of Police Furlong stating that on or about the date named Gussie Grier came to his office and informed him substantially of the facts sworn to in her affidavit, in consequence of which he stationed an officer at Castle Haynes and others at the railway depots in Wilmington to see that Grace George did not leave the city. Gussie Grier said she had a cash bond up for Grace Georg's appearance and feared she would be overpersuaded to leave.

Up for a Hearing.

The contempt proceeding came up for a hearing before Judge Moore a little before 7 o'clock and the affidavits set forth above were read by Mr. Bellamy, Mr. McClammy and Col. Waddell each addressed the court in behalf of the defendant, stating that necessarily they had not time to prepare an answer; that the defendant denied the allegations in toto and that they had been manifestly set on foot that day and that malice was at work somewhere; that the case was only a trivial one of simple assault; that they believed the defendant would be present at any time required and that the purpose of the proceedings was evidently to influence His Honor to increase the bond. The next term of court was only two weeks off and no one could suffer by postponement till Oct. 17th. The postponement was not resisted by the other side and the hearing was set for Oct. 17th. Judge Moore declined to increase the cash bond of $350, stating that he regarded it as sufficient.

In order not to prejudice his client's case before the public, Col. Waddell asked the court to instruct the clerk not to give the affidavits for publication until the answer could be published simultaneously. It was stated that the contempt matter was entirely with His Honor and not with the jury, to which Col. Waddell replied that the publication might prejudice the interest of his client in the assault case. Judge Moore said the publication of the affidavits was a matter over which he had no control and were a part of the court records. The case then went over to Oct. 17th.

BOYS' BRIGADE OF AMERICA.

Something of Popular Military and Social Organization in Wilmington—Its Handsome New Armory.

The STAR prints on this page to-day an excellent cut of the handsome armory building of the First Battalion North Carolina Boys' Brigade of America, now being constructed of stone at the southeast corner of Second and Church streets. It will be the home of one of the most useful and substantial organizations of a military nature in the city or State. A reference to the architecture is unnecessary with a view of the building itself. The main arched entrances on Second and on Church streets open into a vestibule leading into the reception hall, 23x36 feet in size, to be used as a library. On one side rooms will be nicely fitted up for officers' quarters. At the rear will be a finely appointed gymnasium, 42x50 feet in size, with platform along one side for spectators. Around the walls of the gymnasium are lockers for uniforms and guns. In a room adjoining shower baths will be provided.

On the second floor is a hall 50 by 50 feet, which will be used for social purposes and on the end of this hall are the ladies' parlors. There is also a kitchen and pantry adjoining the hall. There will be two bowling alleys on the third floor and a shooting gallery.

The battalion here is a branch of the United Boy's Brigade of America which meets in annual convention in Washington, D. C. this week. Col. Walker Taylor, who organized and has made the brigade an influence for good in this community, and Mr. Chas. C. Loughlin, one of the earliest members of the battalion, will attend the Washington convention as delegates from their command.

The Brigade was organized here on Feb. 14th, 1896, and has grown in membership from a half a dozen to 45 men. The object is the development of Christian manhood, mutual helpfulness in securing positions for the unemployed, assistance in education and, in general, to have supervision over the lives and conduct of members. That the Wilmington division of the organization has accomplished the object and more is the unanimous verdict of every one, and the history and progress of the brigade is proof positive that its originators, led by Col. Taylor, "builded better than they knew."

SPEAKING HERE WEDNESDAY NIGHT.

State Chairman Simmons, Republican Spellbinders and Circus This Week.

Wilmington is yet to get a taste of the campaign before the election in November. Chairman Geo. L. Peschau, of the Democratic Executive Committee, was yesterday notified that U. S. Senator and State Chairman F. M. Simmons would speak here in the Court House on Wednesday night Oct. 5th, but as that is "circus day" in Wilmington, an effort was made for a postponement of the date. It was officially reported last night that the postponed date would be Thursday, Oct. 6th.

Undaunted by the clowns, animals, and steam pianos, however, the Republican top-liners, Hon. C. J. Harris, Republican candidate for Governor, and Hon. Thos. Settle will be here on circus day" and speak in the Court House that night. The appointment is by State Chairman Rollins and was made before the announcement that Mr. Simmons would speak or that the circus would be here. Speakers of every political faith would consider the circus a difficult proposition to go up against, but County Chairman Wallace says the Republican speaking will take place as advertised.

Superior Court Completed One Week Term for Criminal Cases Last Night.

MANY SENTENCES PASSED.

Frank Williams, for Burglary, Gets Ten Years—Judge Moore and Solicitor Duffy Made a Fine Record—Chris. Ellers' Departure.

Aside from the contempt proceedings, an account of which appears elsewhere in to-day's paper, yesterday's sessions of the Superior Court were of no unusual interest save for the passage of sentences upon a number of defendants previously convicted during the week and the clearing up of odds and ends on the docket. So anxious was Judge Moore and Solicitor Duffy to clear the docket of the 101 criminal cases thereon that court was held almost without interruption from 9:30 yesterday morning until 11 o'clock last night. It is a compliment to their skill at a rapid dispatch of business that only eight cases on the entire docket go over until next term, which will convene here to morrow two weeks. In the interim Judge Moore will hold Sampson court at Clinton. No judge who has visited Wilmington within the past decade has quite so favorably impressed the bar and public as has Judge Moore. The district is to be congratulated that he will be here during the Fall and early Winter during the heaviest of court proceedings.

During the day yesterday the 16 year-old Kermon and Garrason boys charged with receiving stolen goods from the residence of Mr. G. Herbert Smith, while it was closed for the Summer, were brought into court and sentence of six months each was passed upon them. Their counsel, Marsden Bellamy and Woodus Kellum, Esqs., made pathetic appeals to the court for mercy and Judge Moore said that the case had given him more concern than any other tried at this term. However, he saw not how he could do less than to impose a sentence of six months, the age of the defendants and the recommendation of the jury being fully appreciated.

During the morning a formal order was made in the case of Chris Ellers sentenced to one year on the roads for a murderous assault upon his wife, particulars of which and the conditions upon which the judgment was suspended being well known to readers of this paper. Relatives of Ellers paid costs amounting to $20.70 and according to the court order he is to leave town and never return upon penalty of having the original sentence go immediately into execution. A ticket has been purchased and Ellers will be put aboard the belated Clyde steamer "Navahoe" by an officer when she sails Monday. This disposition of the case meets with very general public approval.

Frank Williams, the negro charged with the burglary of Mrs. C. H. Ganzer's residence, submitted to larceny and was sentenced to 10 years in the State's prison.

Ed Connor, selling liquor without license, was found not guilty.

S. Blossom, false pretence; nol pros, defendant to pay costs.

Sentences passed last night just before adjournment were as follows:

Lucy Currie, larceny of linen from Colonial Inn; two years in jail with leave to hire out.

Edward Pigford, larceny of bicycle; one year on roads.

Owen Quince, resisting officer Leon George and carrying concealed weapon; four months on roads.

Julius Haynes, scl fa for carrying concealed weapons; $35 bond forfeited.

Allen Pearsall, false pretence; two years on roads.

Thos. Howard, abandonment; six months on roads conditioned upon his giving bond, paying costs and contributing $2.00 per week to support of his afflicted wife.

Zollie Pearsall, former judgment of one year on roads stricken out; defendant to be hired out for same period and costs to be paid.

The jury at 10:30 o'clock after argument by counsel during the night session, returned a verdict of not guilty as to the young Sandlin brothers charged with being a nuisance on the trolley cars on Labor Day.

Joseph Thomas, carrying concealed weapon; pleaded guilty; prayer for judgment continued in three cases upon payment of costs.

Chas. Burnett, assault, fine changed from $10 to $5.

Jackson Brown, assault with a deadly weapon; motion for new trial continued without prejudice to next term; same prisoner charged with perjury, also continued until next term.

Parson Thomas, assault with deadly weapon; fined $25 and costs.

ROOSEVELT DID SAY IT.

A few days ago on the stump in western North Carolina the Hon. R. B. Glenn, the Democratic nominee for governor, denounced some brutal remarks which the unthinking Roosevelt was alleged to have made in refering to the people of the South.

Naturally such words as were attributed to the President were sufficient to arouse indignation, and State Chairman Rollins felt that such a charge by Captain Glenn must not go unchallenged. Mr. Rollins, therefore, wired to the President's private secretary, Mr. Loeb, asking if the President ever made such remarks. Mr. Loeb wired back that the charge was absolutely false.

It turns out now that "President Roosevelt" never made the offensive remarks, but they were written by Theodore Roosevelt, author. What is Mr. Rollins and other white Republicans to do now when it is shown to them in black and white that Roosevelt did say what was attributed to him? The facts in the case are furnished by Mr. Thos. J. Pence, Washington correspondent of the Raleigh Post, who writes as follows on Thursday:

William Loeb, Jr., secretary to the president, finds himself in a very embarrassing position by reason of his hasty effort to deny well established utterances of the president. But this is about the usual status in which the blundering Mr. Loeb finds himself, and so when Washingtonians learned of his latest performance to-day they laughed and said: "Poor Loeb; he's got his foot in it again."

What Gov. Glenn said with reference to Mr. Roosevelt's utterances has never been seriously questioned before. Practically the same language has appeared in the Congressional Record time after time. Mr. Loeb simply went off half-cocked, as the homely expression goes, and besides holding himself up to ridicule, he did no further damage, unless it be that he heaped some of his embarrassment on Republican State Chairman Rollins. What Roosevelt said about Southern character has always been a thorn in the side of many of his admirers, who said that it ought to be overlooked, as it was penned when he was a much younger man. It is taken from his Life of Benton, and was quoted on the floor of Congress more than a score of times last Winter. There is hardly any excuse for a well-read public man who claims that he never heard of this Roosevelt ian utterance. Here it is, and it is on sale in every book store in the United States:

"Slavery was chiefly responsible for the streak of coarse and brutal barbarism which ran through the Southern character."

As to the charge that President Roosevelt classed the Confederate soldiers as anarchists, I have never before heard its denial. The President made the statement in this city in the Spring of 1902, while addressing a G. A. R. delegation. Mr. Loeb's information as to this utterance on the part of the President is about equal to his knowledge of what Roosevelt said as an author. In any event the following editorial paragraph in the Washington Post, commenting on the President's declaration about ex-Confederates as anarchists would indicate as much. Here is what the Post said editorially:

"It is disagreeable enough to the Southern people to be officially designated as 'rebels,' and now to add 'anarchist' is an exasperation which we find it impossible to believe the President really intended."

With the evidence in, the people can take the case against Mr. Loeb. But then it is known even among the children of Oyster Bay, Washington and other remote points that Mr. Loeb, well meaning man that he is, has been made the official scapegoat of the wielder of the big stick. Such is the penalty for being the confidential clay of the present wielder of the White House.

But back of this incident is one salient fact that should not be overlooked. Mr. Rollins, like every other good Anglo-Saxon, rebelled when he heard of this slur upon Southern character. Now his associations have left him in the position of having to accept a situation that it would have been good policy to ignore.

What, now, will Republican spellbinders do about asking Southern white men, Republicans or Democrats, to vote for Theodore Roosevelt? What will Mr. Rollins do? What will Judge W. S. O'B. Robinson, Republican candidate for Congress in the Third District, have to say about it?

Judge Robinson is engaged in a joint canvass of the Third District with Congressman Charles R. Thomas, the Democratic nominee. They spoke at Kenansville on Thursday, and Mr. Thomas confronted his opponent with Roosevelt's opinion of Southerners. Judge Robinson told the audience that he was satisfied that it was a false charge and that they knew if it were true that he would not any more vote for Roosevelt than they would. Mr. Pence's letter and Roosevelt's book put it up to Judge Robinson and every other white Republican to vote for Judge Parker as evidence of their resentment of Roosevelt's estimate of Southern character and manhood.

On page 161 of Roosevelt's "Life of Benton" is the following complete paragraph of which Mr. Pence quotes a part:

"Slavery was chiefly responsible for the streak of coarse and brutal barbarism which ran through the Southern character, and which marked the ferocious outcry instantly raised by the whole Southern press against the Abolitionists."

This makes it all the worse. We wonder if there is a white North Carolinian that could swallow Roosevelt without holding his nose?

MUTUAL UNDERSTANDING.

The STAR hopes the people of the United States are taking many notes and making some mental reservations over the "fat frying" feature of this campaign. With the head of the Republican party pretending to be a trust buster, the multi-millionaires are cheerfully submitting to being squeezed for the benefit of the Republican campaign fund.

If the fellows from whom the fat is fried are being help up and have to throw their quota into the contribution basket, it looks like a case of blackmail. However, it is not blackmail for the trust folks and the Republican party thoroughly understand each other. The Republican party knows that its high protective tariff is to the manufacturers like getting money from home. Four years of easy-coming money between campaigns makes it a cheerful acquiescence on the part of the tariff beneficiaries when the G. O. P. collection hat is handed around for a mere rake-off from huge benefits from protection.

The whole system looks like protecting a lot of men who in turn furnish a fund with which to corrupt and debauch American politics every four years. The trusts are sublimely confident that trust-busting is not to be seriously taken as long as the Republican party stands pat on a protective system that is the trust's soft snap.

— Kinston Free Press: Kinston has almost a prodigy in Master Billy Bond, Jr., who is probably the smallest butcher in the whole country. Master Billy is 12 years old and weighs only 72 pounds, yet it is a common thing for him, entirely alone, to rope, kill and butcher cattle weighing 600 to 800 pounds gross, and when the job is done it appears the work of an expert. The young butcher does not shoot his cattle, but takes his knife and with unerring aim sends it into the "socket," a slight space to be found back of the head, where the spinal column join the head, and death follows instantaneously. Of course he can't swing the beef, but in, taking the hide off he has few equals.

— Lexington Dispatch: Only a few years ago the people let those flannel-mouthed Republican bosses get hold of the State and the first thing they did was to put one thousand or more negroes in office to hector and domineer over the white people of the State, and yet they now ask to be put back in office. They surely think the people have short memories.

GAME PRESERVATION.

Law Prohibiting Sale of Game at All Times Proving a Potent Aid.

The best blow for game preservation was struck when laws were enacted prohibiting the sale of game at all times. A difficulty was encountered at first owing to the conflict of laws in the different states. Birds were offered for sale in a state where the sale was illegal, and the evidence was always at hand that they were killed in another state where the shooting season was open. The words "wherever killed" were soon added to the laws prohibiting sales, and these were supplemented by laws prohibiting the transportation and exportation of game and making it a misdemeanor to have it in possession in close seasons.

The national congress recently enacted a law, known as the Lacey law, enlarging the duties and powers of the department of agriculture so as to include the preservation, distribution, introduction and restoration of game birds and other wild birds. This law was passed "to aid in the restoration of such birds in those parts of the United States adapted thereto where the same have become scarce or extinct and also to regulate the introduction of American or foreign birds or animals in localities where they have not heretofore existed." It prohibits the transportation by interstate commerce of game killed in violation of local laws. That a sentiment has developed in favor of the execution of the game laws is well known, to their sorrow, to many innkeepers, common carriers and dealers. Constitutional questions have been raised, and cases growing out of the killing of a few partridges have gone to the supreme court of the United States. It is gratifying to the sportsmen that the laws have usually been upheld. This has always been the case excepting where too little care was exercised in their framing. There was much bungling in the earlier legislation; there is some today.—Century.

Aggravating Assaults.

New Zealand is bothered by the theater hat question. Miss McDermott tried to settle it recently in a practical manner. She was seated in a theater of the town of Oamaru, and in front of her was Mrs. Brady, wearing voluminous headgear. As Mrs. Brady refused to remove the obstructive hat, Miss McDermott borrowed a gentleman's walking stick and tilted it out of her line of vision. But Mrs. Brady was not prepared to wear her hat at a rakish angle all the evening, and so she put it straight again. Every time she did so Miss McDermott repeated the performance with the walking stick. The magistrates decided that Miss McDermott had committed "a series of minor but aggravating assaults" and fined her $2.50, plus $14 costs. The money was promptly subscribed by the citizens as a protest against large hats in theaters.

To Fight Storm and Frost.

An earnest effort is to be made in France to fight nature with her own weapons in the realms of the storms and frosts. A company has issued a prospectus asking for $600,000 capital in order, first, to send from and to various centers by wireless telegraphy a complete description of any storm that arises and of the course it is pursuing; second, to have apparatus ready for dissipating hailstorms by firing explosives into the air; third, by the automatic lighting of numerous piles of combustible materials over a large area to produce artificial clouds which will serve as a protection against the attacks of frost.

COTTON MARKETS.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—Cotton market pened easy, in response to a further decline in Liverpool at a loss of six to eight points. There was a good demand from shorts on the additional decline but with the weather good, the week-end statement showing a big accumulation in visible supplies and a bearish bureau report expected on Monday, there was plenty of cotton for sale. Western interests and Wall street seemed the chief sellers, while the South, apparently, bought on the decline. Trading was fairly active. Toward the middle of the morning a demand from shorts developed and prices rallied from a net loss of eight to ten points to about last night's figures.

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—Cotton was quiet at 10.50c, net receipts — bales; gross receipts 2,609 bales; stock 33,691 bales.

FAMILY CARES.

This Information May Be of Value to Many a Parent in Wilmington.

When there is added to the many cares inseperable from the rearing of children that affliction of weakness of the kidneys and auxiliary organs, the mother's lot is far from a happy one. This condition can be quickly changed and absolutely cured by the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. When this is known the parent's burden will be lighter and her home happier.

J. T. Ebert, of 515 South 6th street, mattress maker, says: "I used Doan's Kidney Pills in my family. My little girl complained of severe pains in the small of her back, and the kidney secretions were dark and full of brickdust sediment. We were very much worried about her and when I learned of Doan's Kidney Pills I went up to R. R. Bellamy's drug store and got a box and gave them to her. Since using them she had improved wonderfully and is a different child. Her kidney secretions cleared up, she does not complain of her back, and in fact Doan's Kidney Pills gave her new life. We are very much pleased with them and you can use my name and welcome."

The Slightest Derangement of these important organs should be Promptly heeded, for no Disease is more dangerous.

Deadly diabetes, gravel or stone in the bladder, uremic poisoning, and other fatal forms of Kidney Diseases always begin in a mild form. There is little harm at first, and with proper treatment all irregularities can be corrected, but the slight symptoms are often overlooked and before the victim can realize it, a fully developed and dangerous stage is reached.

A thoroughly reliable and time-tested remedy for all diseases of the Bladder and Kidneys is

SPIRITS TURPENTINE.

— Gastonia Gazette states that in Gaston county the total assessment of real and personal property amounted to $7,952,980 a gain over last year of $371,706. The total number of polls listed is 4,872, a gain of 559 over last year.

—The O. W. Carr Company of Greensboro was chartered in the office of Secretary of State at Raleigh on Friday for the purpose of conducting a general insurance business, the capital being $10,000 and the incorporators O. W. Carr, Mrs. Lula Carr, Lee H. Battle and Jas. F. Cobb.

— A dispatch from Littleton on Friday says: In the case of J. T. Tucker, administrator, vs. the Seaboard Air Line, tried at the last term of Warren court, there was a mistrial, the jury failing to agree. Tucker, as administrator, brought suit for damages growing out of the murder of one Allgood on an excursion from Weldon last year. Allgood was found dead in the car for colored people when the train reached here. No clue has ever been reached as to who cut Allgood's throat.

— While riding on the steps of a train going into Wilson on the Atlantic Coast Line Thursday morning Ernest Venton, a young negro man from Fremont, was instantly killed. There was a big crowd on the train going to John Robinson's circus. It is said that the negro was on the car steps swinging off with both hands on the hand rails, when his head struck an iron switch, which knocked him from the train, almost severing his head from his body. His brains were knocked out and scattered all over the ground. He died instantly and probably never knew what struck him. His remains were taken back to Fremont, his home, for interment.

— A dispatch srom Greensboro on Friday says: The typhoid fever epidemic at the Baptist Orphanage at Thomasville is a most terrible experience. Four new cases developed there yesterday. Out of 280 children there, one in every seven so far has contracted the fever. Two have died and two are now critically ill. Twenty-one have been discharged from the infirmary as cured, and there are now twenty-one down with the fever. The extraordinary expenses this sickness has caused the institution have made it necessary for the management to appeal for financial aid, and the response should be immediate and generous. There never was a worthier call for practical humanity.

— What appears to be a deliberate murrder was committed at Belcross near Elizabeth City shot and instantly killed William Aydlett, with whom he was boarding. Both of the parties are colored. Walker had been doing some ditching in the neighborhood, and had been boarding with old man Aydlett while he was doing the work. Thursday night about 9 o'clock a colored man who was passing the house, heard some one quarreling and heard the old man say: "Get out of here Walker." He then heard two pistol shots and this was followed, says the neighbor, by Walker and a woman running out of the house. The colored man notified some neighbors that there was trouble there and several went to the house and found the old man lying on the floor in a pool of blood stone dead. The man and woman have both disappeared and so far have not been arrested. The supposition is that the two men became involved in a quarrel and that Walker deliberately shot the old man. An examination of the remains revealed the fact that two bullets of a thirty-eight calibre pistol had been fired through the lower part of the stomach and death must have resulted instantly. William Aydlett was a respectable negro farmer. Very little is known of Walker as he had only been in the neighborhood a short while. The colored population are very much wrought up over the affair.

— The following dispatch was sent from Winston-Salem on Friday: "The body of Early Bullin arrived here this afternoon from Thomasville, where he was found dead this morning. Bullin, who was eighteen years old, was slain by an unknown party last night. He left his home a few days ago and his parents did not know where he went until advised to-day that he was dead." The following dispatch from Thomasville Friday morning states how the tragedy occurred: Last night between 12 and 1 o'clock a robber by the name of Early Bullin, from Winston-Salem, we are informed, broke into the grocery store of Moore Bros., from the back of the store, and stole some tobacco and other articles, tore open the money drawer and took all the money he could find, which fortunately was only 43 pennies. From this store he went to the side window of the store of J. C. Kinney & Co., and placed boxes beside the window in order to reach the window, then raised the window sash and proceeded to slide between the bars, which were very far apart. Fortunately Mr. Jerome Kinney, the owner of the store, was sleeping in the store, and as soon as the robber began to enter through the window Mr. Kinney awoke and levelled a double-barrelled shotgun loaded with No. 8 shot and pulled the trigger. The man fell to the ground. Immediately Mr. Kinney went to the window and saw another robber running away and he made an effort to shoot him, but had his finger on the wrong trigger of the gun. Early this morning the body of the robber that was shot was found dead on the sidewalk, just in front of the residence of Mr. W. L. Myres, about seventy-five yards from the place he was shot. The entire load entered the man's chest and neck.

It has been discovered that a radio active gas or emanation can be obtained by drawing air over hot copper or by bulbing it through hot or cold mercury.

Crane and Friedlander, who have experimented on its bacteriocidal properties, find that roasted coffee is a decidedly active agent in the destruction of germs, including some of the more serious and important ones.

The grip bacillus is the smallest microbe yet discovered which affects man. It is but .4 of a micron broad and two to three times as long. The limit to visibility to the most powerful microscope is .2 of a micron, which is the size of the microbe of the peripneumonic of cattle. Two-tenths of a micron is one one hundred and twenty-five thousandth of an inch.

A FACT PROVEN.

Should Convince Even the Most Skeptical of Its Truth.

If there is the slightest doubt in the minds of any that Dandruff germs do not exist, their belief is compelled by the fact that a rabbit innoculated with the germs became bald in six weeks' time.

It must be apparent to any person therefore that the only prevention of baldness is the destruction of the germ—which act is successfully accomplished in one hundred per cent. of cases by the application of Newbro's Herpicide.

Dandruff is caused by the same germ which causes baldness and can be prevented with the same remedy—Newbro's Herpicide.

The Morning Star.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

SUNDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 2.

SIR WM. VERNON HARCOURT.

The Finest Political Gladiator of the Age Died Suddenly at His Home Near Oxford, England.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

LONDON, Oct. 1.—Sir William Vernon Harcourt, "the finest political gladiator" of his age, died very suddenly to-day at Nuneham Park, near Oxford, the country seat which he recently inherited from his nephew. Only his wife, a daughter of the late John Lothrop Motley, the historian and former American minister to Great Britain, was with him.

When Sir William went to bed last night he seemed fairly well though he had been suffering from a slight chill. This morning when he was called he replied cheerily: "In a short time." Later a servant entered the room and found Sir William lying dead on his bed. His son, Lewis Vernon Harcourt, member of Parliament for the Rossendale division of Lancashire, was hastily summoned from London.

Among all classes in the United Kingdom, regardless of party, the unexpected news caused a sensation and genuine regret. The somewhat pathetic announcement in March last of his intended retirement had prepared the public for Sir William's eventual disappearance from the active arena of political strife, but there had been no whisper that his stalwart constitution had been radically impaired by nearly forty years of fierce parliamentary strife.

An underlying note in the columns of obituary that appear is keen regret at the disappearance of such a strenuous type as has come from the ranks of both parties. This "swashbuckler," as his opponents used to call him in his life time, was upheld even in the midst of the recent political strife over free trade, as the type of man who knew his own mind and was not afraid to fight for it. English politics, as one paper says, will now lose something of their sting. But those intimate with the inner feelings of the members of the House of Commons know that the gap in the front bench, where the huge figure of Sir William had long grown to be a familiar sight, will be uncommonly hard to fill. Not since Lord Salisbury died, and scarcely then, for the late premier had few personal friends, has the death of any statesman created so much genuine feeling at the headquarters of both parties. The National Liberal Club immediately half-masted its flag and sent a message of sympathy to Lady Harcourt. The other clubs followed suit.

COTTON DUCK MERGER.

Proceedings in the United States Circuit Court in New York City.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—Answers were filed in the United States Circuit Court to-day by the Continental Trust Company, of Baltimore, to actions recently brought against it by the Central National Bank of New York, now in liquidation, and the Merchants' Trust Company, of New York. The complainants were subscribers to the underwriting syndicate which organized the United States Cotton Duck Company.

According to the complaint the defendant company was the syndicate of the Mount Vernon-Woodbury Cotton Duck Company, a corporation which merged nearly a dozen of the leading cotton duck manufacturing plants of the country, but which as a company, the complainants allege, proved a financial failure.

The complainants further allege that they were induced to subscribe $100,000 each to the new company through a circular which they allege was intentionally misleading.

The answer filed to-day denies the various allegations collectively and separately.

NO ENGAGEMENT YET AT MUKDEN.

Russian War Office Declares That Nothing is Known Even of Serious Fighting There.

SOME OUTPOSTS AFFAIRS.

Successful Raids by Russians—Their Cavalry Executing Important Movements—May Defeat the Flank Advance of the Japanese.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

Advices received by the Russian general staff last night are to the effect that a check has been put upon the advance of the Japanese to the eastward of Mukden, and show that the movement is considered to be of little importance. Two reports of raids upon vessels carrying supplies for the Japanese have reached St. Petersburg; it is considered probable, however, that they refer to the same, though the number of vessels destroyed and the locality of the action are differently stated in the two dispatches. General Kuropatkin's friends still assert that he is be chief in command of the Russian forces in Manchuria. Viceroy Alexieff will be received with much pomp upon his return to St. Petersburg, where he will be quartered in the royal palace and otherwise honored. His return to the Far East as viceroy at the conclusion of the war is by many persons considered to be quite possible.

Great Fire at Sevastopole

LONDON, Oct. 1.—A dispatch to a news agency here from Sevastopole says that the artillery and ammunition magazines there are in flames and it is feared there has been considerable loss of life. Detachments of troops and seamen are succeeding in controlling the flames.

An Outpost Affair.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 1, 1:35 A. M.—A dispatch from General Sakamhoff received by the general staff to-night brings the record of events up to September 30th. It shows that the Japanese advance on the eastern side in the region of Bentsiapuize has been checked. This movement still appears to be an outpost affair, not accompanied with serious fighting, no advance of the Japanese in force having occurred up to the date mentioned. The operations to the west of Mukden have extended 26 miles down the Hun river, where the Japanese were temporarily driven out from Tschantan and seventeen supply boats were burned. It is possible that this raid is identical with that one reported by the Associated Press from Mukden, though in the latter it is stated to have occurred upon the Liao river. In any case it shows that the Japanese are using the river to bring up supplies and that their operations are being opposed, they not having succeeded in approaching nearer than Tschantan, along the line of the Hun river.

The forthcoming changes in the naval commands, announced by the Associated Press, have become the subject of widespread discussion. The necessity for the changes is generally admitted, but whether Emperor Nicholas will give immediate effect to the reorganization is uncertain. Meanwhile, Vice Admiral Avelian requests that a formal denial of the news of his retirement from the ministry of marine be made public.

The numerous friends and supporters of General Kuropatkin declare that events justify their prediction that he, after all, will be appointed chief in command of the armies in the Far East and the Emperor has reconsidered his intention of sending out Grand Duke Nicholas Nicholaievitch as commander-in-chief. According to their version the Frst army will be placed under command of General Lubovitski, now commanding the Ninth army corps at Kieff and the Third army under Lieutenant General Linevitch.

Quarters are being prepared at the Winter Palace for Viceroy Alexieff, upon whom the Emperor intends to bestow a mark of signal honor to prove that his return in no wise is in the nature of disgrace.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 1.—General Sakaroff reports that the Japanese are still pouring across the Taize river at Benaihu, 20 miles northwest of Liao Yang. He adds that numbers of Chinese bandits are with the Japanese on the Liao side of the railroad.

A Successful Raid.

MUKDEN, Oct. 1.—A detachment of sixty members of the Kubensky cavalry, with two officers, have returned here after a successful raid upon a flotilla of Japanese supply boats on the Liao river. They brought back two Japanese prisoners. The sailors succeeded in boarding and setting fire to nine junks and barges, several of which were laden with ammunition, and these were blown up with terrific explosions. The cavalrymen reached shore in safety. They met a Japanese patrol, two members of which they killed, and took many prisoners whom they brought here.

The inactivity here continues and is becoming monotonous. It is generally believed, however, that operations will be begun with renewed force next week.

Gen. Sakharoff's Report.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 1.—General Sakharoff reports that the Russian cavalry on September 29th stopped a Japanese offensive movement in the direction of Yangsingtung and Fengtiapu. On September 30th a detachment of Russian cavalry drove the Japanese from the village of Changtan and burned seventeen junks which were transporting ammunition on the Hun river. The cavalry retired upon the approach of Japanese reinforcements.

No Engagement at Mukden.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 1, 5:02 P. M.—Important developments on the eastern flank of the Manchurian army are admitted by the war office to be proceeding. The details, however, are withheld for strategic reasons, the authorities departing from silence only to the extent of saying that the Russian cavalry is executing important movements, leaving it be surmised that it is trying to cut the Japanese line of communication and thus defeat the flank advance.

An absolute denial is given to the Shanghai telegram reporting that a general engagement at Mukden has been won by the Japanese. The war office even declares that nothing is known of any serious fighting there.

The news from the front is extremely meagre and many confusing statements are made. It seems questionable whether Field Marshal Oyama is ready to assume the offensive. No news is obtainable of the wide Japanese turning movement east, which is regarded as the chief feature of the Japanese operations. Should Oyama be compelled to abandon the idea of an advance it is stated in a Mukden dispatch that it is possible, with fresh troops constantly arriving, that Gen. Kuropatkin may attempt some offensive operations.

CHICAGO THEATRE FIRE.

Blaze on Roof of the Great Northern. No Panic—House Emptied in One Minute and Forty-five Seconds.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

CHICAGO, Oct. 1.—Since the Iroquois theatre fire last December when nearly 600 lives were lost, the Chicago theatres have been so thoroughly equipped with safeguards against fire that to day when fire broke out in the roof of the Great Northern building, the Great Northern theatre was emptied in one minute and forty five seconds. This was accomplished without the least semblance of a panic among the 1,500 persons who were in the play house at the time.

As soon as the manager of the theatre learned that the roof of the building in which the theatre is situated was on fire, he ordered the steel fire curtain lowered, and signalled the orchestra to play a march. The audience, thinking that the matinee had abruptly ended, left the place rapidly, but in order. No one was injured and the theatre crowd was in the streets before the fire department arrived.

CONSPIRACY DEVELOPED.

To Defraud the Government and Prejudice Administration of Steamboat Laws.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—A conspiracy which has been developed by officials of the Department of Commerce and Labor and of the Department of Justice to-day resulted in the arrest at Camden, N. J., of J. H. Stone, H. C. Quintard, Chas. W. Russ and James Russ, officers of the Nonpariel Cork Works. They were apprehended by the United States marshal for the district of New Jersey, under an indictment found on September 29th by the United States grand jury at Trenton, charging them under Section 544 of the Revised Statutes of the United States, with conspiring to defraud the government and prejudice the administration of the steamboat inspection laws by putting upon the market compressed cork blocks for use in making life-preservers each of which blocks contained in its centre a piece of bar iron about six inches long and weighing eight ounces. The iron bar was inserted and concealed in the block for the purpose of increasing the weight to the legal requirement of six pounds of good cork for each life-preserver. The men arrested will be arrigned, probably nearly next week, before the United States District Court of New Jersey to plead to the indictment.

OHIO DEMOCRATS.

Campaign Opened With Large and Enthusiastic Crowds All Over the State.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

LIMA, O., Oct. 1.—The Democratic campaign was opened here to-day in the presence of a large and enthusiastic crowd from all over the State. The principal speaker was Charles A. Towne, of New York. Other speakers were James A. Kilbourne, of Ohio, and Hon. Edward MacGregor, of Pittsburg. Mayor Tom L. Johnson, of Cleveland, was among the notables present. Mr. Towne predicted a Democratic victory in New York in November and said that he believed West Virginia was also safely a Democratic State.

CONDITION CRITICAL.

Small Hope for the Recovery of Postmaster General Payne

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—Postmaster General Payne's life to-night hangs in the balance. He has been unable to maintain the improvement over last night noted in the early morning bulletin. Late in the afternoon he had a sinking spell, and failed to rally as quickly as heretofore from the stimulants administered. At 8 o'clock, though he was reported as not so well, he began to respond to treatment, and an hour later was said to be resting quietly. Small hope, however, is held out for his recovery.

TAKEN FROM JAIL; LYNCHED BY MOB.

John Morrison Killed Willie Floyd at Kershaw, S. C., in a Quarrel About Ten Cents.

TROOPS WERE ORDERED OUT.

But Before They Arrived at the Scene Morrison Had Been Taken from Jail and Put to Death—Gov. Heyward Condemns Lynching.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Oct. 1.—John Morrison shot and killed Willie Floyd, at Kershaw, S. C., this afternoon, after a few words over a loan of ten cents. Floyd being very popular, great indignation was felt in the county. Morrison was arrested.

Capt. Zemp, of the Camden Guards, with about thirty members of his company, went to Kershaw from Camden on a special train in response to Governor Heyward's orders, but before he arrived on the scene Morrison had been taken from the jail and lynched.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Oct. 1.—Governor Heyward gave out a statement tonight in regard to the lynching of Johnson Morrison, at Kershaw. Governor Heyward was severe in his condemnation of the lynching, as he is of all lynchings. He said to-night that he wants the people of the State of South Carolina to know that he condemns lynching, a blot upon our civilization, and that no crime committed makes mob law excusable. Even in cases of rape, punishment by death can and will be meted out by the courts, and the record of recent years proved that lynching for this crime leads to lynching for other crimes. The time has come, he feels, when the good people of the State, the law-abiding people, should rise up and call a halt.

The sale of seats for "Happy Hooligan," the jolly farce which will delight at the Academy Tuesday night, will start at Plummer's to-morrow morning. Of the comedy Thursday afternoon's Greensboro Record says: "Gus Hill's merry musical melange, 'Happy Hooligan,' was the attraction at the Grand last night and the play was witnessed by an audience of goodly proportions. The production is of the most pronounced farcial style, constructed for laughing purposes, full of comic situations and a rapid succession of funny episodes. The music is catchy, the chorus good looking and well trained, the costumes elegant and the stage settings beautiful, all combining to make the performance notable from a spectacular as well as musical standpoint. Of course the company is not so large as several musical comedy companies that have been here, but if one is to judge the merit of the performance by the applause it can be safely said that the audience was well pleased. Probably the best musical number was 'A Bit of Blarney,' sung by Mr. John Price and the chorus, gowned in handsome costumes of green. The singing of a male quartette was also well received."

In "The Fatal Wedding," which comes to the Academy to-morrow night theatre-goers of this city will get something out of the ordinary run of comedy dramas. The plot is entirely different from anything heretofore seen, and serves to introduce a well told story, full of heart interest and pathos, and one that appeals strongly to the feminine portion of the theatre-going public. The scenic effects are truly wonderful and marvellous, depicting reproductions of some of the most famous scenes in and around Gotham. Notably among these are shown a counterfeiter's den, located on the banks of the Hudson river. Another scene shows the famous Palisades at night. In connection with this a great storm effect is produced, making one of the most realistic scenes ever attempted. The famous Grace Church, New York City, is reproduced, as well as several other well known landmarks.

Conspiracy Case Against V. E. McBee and K. S. Finch Nol Prossed.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

RALEIGH, N. C., Oct. 1.—The conspiracy case against V. E. McBee and K. S. Finch was to-day nolle prossed. This was done after application to the Governor by Judge F. I. Osborne, of Charlotte, their counsel, and by request of the Governor and consent of the defendants the solicitor will not further prosecute the case.

The conspiracy charged was the obtaining of a receivership for the Atlantic and North Carolina Railroad and acts previous to obtaining stock in the road and while obtaining this. The State has leased the road and all litigation about it is over.

COTTON BOLL WEEVILS.

Insect Pests Founds on Cotton in Walton County, Georgia.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

COVINGTON, Ga., Oct. 1.—Last Thursday the State agricultural department sent several specimens of Texas cotton boll weevils here to be compared with insects found in cotton in this neighborhood. C. P. Lee, a farmer living in Walton county on the Newton line, gathered a bottle full of bugs from his cotton and compared them with the genuine weevils. They were found to be identical. Even under the microscope no difference was found. Samples of the Walton county bugs have been sent to Oxford and Atlanta for further examination.

HAVANA CIGARS.

Manufacturers Complain of Secretary Shaw's Decision Concerning Stamps.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

HAVANA, Oct. 1.—The members of the cigar manufacturers association vigorously urge the Cuban government to represent to the United States the alleged injustice in removing the distinctive stamp on imported cigars. It is charged that Secretary Shaw's decision assists all the dishonesty practiced against the American consumer, in making the boxes containing mixed or otherwise inferior products appear to contain pure Havanas.

Our original enlargements are beauties and giving excellent satisfaction. U. C. Ellis, phone 1029. †

GREAT ROBINSON SHOWS.

How They Were Received by Discriminating Public in Blue Grass State.

The Louisville (Ky.) Daily Courier-Journal says:

"Clean and good from start to finish, without an act that was dull or poor, and with a hundred that were far better than the average, John Robinson's shows thoroughly satisfied thousands of persons yesterday afternoon and last evening. The crowd was a record-breaker for Atlanta, and the seats in the tent would not hold all the people. They spread into the hippodrome track and blocked it so that it was almost impossible to hold the races, and the united efforts of twenty circus men were required to keep the swarming women and children from being stepped on during the grand march in the opening act.

"Argus, who is said to have had more than a thousand eyes, might possibly have seen all that went on in the big tent yesterday, but no mere mortal could have done it. In spite of the big crowd everything went on smoothly and there were no accidents or interruptions. The employes handled the people in perfect fashion, and there was no blocking of entrances or jostling.

"The tent was large, seating 12,000 souls, and from one end of it to the other something was doing all the time. Once fourteen men and women were "doing stunts" on the flying rings, trapeze, slack wire and other apparatus, and this was a fair sample of the bewildering amount of acts which are given. Three regulation rings were in use, and it was practically three separate and distinct circuses under one big tent.

"The parade took place again this morning, beginning at the show grounds. It covered the principal streets which were wide enough to allow of easy passage without interfering with the street cars, and the sidewalks were black with men, women and children along the entire route. It was a parade which did credit to John Robinson the Third, the young owner and manager who led it.

"The performance in the big tent opened with the spectacle called "Solomon and the Queen of Sheba," and this takes the place of the usual grand entree by all the performers. A handsomely costumed and pleasing ballet is introduced, forming a novel scene for the circus tent. New tricks on the trapeze, new acts of all kinds are introduced, and for two hours the best athletes and entertainers to be found in the business are seen in the rings and in the air. The clowns, who are numerous and some of them funny kept the children laughing yesterday, and added the spice of laughter to the show. The elephants, under the direction of the Buckleys, and that calico horse ridden by Miss Gertrude, won great applause."

AS TO REGISTRATION.

An Opinion by Attorneys Pou & Fuller. Books Open Thursday.

[Special Star Telegram.]

RALEIGH, N. C., Oct. 1.—State Chairman Simmons in the absence of Attorney General Gilmer requested an opinion from Pou & Fuller, attorneys here, regarding the operation of the election law. They made a report to-day to the effect that a new general registration is not necessary; that the registration books of 1902 should be revised and names of voters who died since that time, removed to other precincts or who have otherwise become illegible should be stricken from the list, all remaining transcribed by the register on the new book to which the new registrations should be made. Where new precincts have been formed, new registrations are necessary in the new precincts and in all old ones from which new precincts were taken.

CUMBERLAND REPUBLICANS

Nominated Full Ticket Yesterday and Purchased a Party "Organ."

[Special Star Correspondence.]

FAYETTEVILLE, N. C., Sept. 30.—The Cumberland County Republican Convention met here to-day. The following nominations are the result: For the Senate, J. Hector Smith, formerly a Democrat; House, John C. Bain and Dr. E. D. Sneed; Sheriff, J. McP. Geddie, one of the good farmers of Cumberland, (not a politician,) who once, a few years ago, represented the county as a Populist, in the Senate, but whose affiliations in that body were with the Democrats. He may not accept the nomination. For Register of Deeds, Daniel McNeill, a mug-wump Democrat; Treasurer, Jno. G. McNeill, a clerk in the grocery store of Mr. W. G. Clark, in this city, and I believe a "Democratic Populist." For Commissioners, A. H. Slocomb, well known in the State—especially in Wilmington—a National Republican, but a State and county Democrat; Alex. Hales, Populist, Jno. A. McFarland, Populist, N. C. Newland, a Republican superintendent of Holt-Morgan Mills, in this city; Jno. Graham, Populist surveyor, W. S. Hair, Republican, coroner, Dr. J. C. Gilbert, sometimes a Democrat, sometimes a Republican, and then again, according to circumstances, a Populist.

The Republicans to-day purchased the Tribune, an independent paper, for some time published at Hope Mills, and will run it in the interest of their ticket until after the election. They say they will make it hot for the Democrats. The editor has not yet been named.
